

Group Project Grading Rubric

Names of group members: _____

Exercise One: Free-Writing _____ (20)

Exercise Two: Group-member Interviews

Uniformity of format _____ (5)
Rigor of questions _____ (5)
Clarity of answers _____ (5)
Length of interview _____ (5)

Exercise Three: Expert Interview

Rigor of questions _____ (10)
Format of interview _____ (5)
Length of interview _____ (5)
Pertinence of interview to project topic _____ (5)

Exercise Four: Collection of Articles

Appropriate number of articles included _____ (5)
Scholarly rigor of articles _____ (5)
Articles are well chosen; expert and personal areas _____ (5)

Exercise Five: Five Summaries

Format of summaries _____ (5)
Summaries mention author, article, journal name _____ (5)
Appropriate number of summaries _____ (5)
Summaries demonstrate requisite features _____ (10)

Exercise Six: Group Paper

Uniformity of style and voice across sections: _____ (5)
Few grammar and punctuation errors throughout: _____ (10)
Influence of all members on paper: _____ (5)
Attention to format requirements: _____ (5)
Proofreading: _____ (5)
Essay contains a suitable thesis _____ (5)
Thesis pertains to project topic _____ (5)
Each member's area is discussed _____ (5)
The expert's area is discussed _____ (5)
Paper draws interesting conclusions about "writing across disciplines" _____ (5)
Each peer's interview and the expert's interview is quoted/referenced _____ (5)
Length of paper _____ (5)
Paragraphing _____ (5)

Group conference/Miscellaneous:

Preparedness/punctuality _____ (5)
Group's work as a "team" _____ (5)
Status of binder at meeting _____ (5)
Overall neatness/organization of binder _____ (5)
All members turned in assessment letter & essay _____ (5)

TOTAL (200): _____