

Peer review was thoroughly and thoughtfully done: (5) ___

Title page: (1) ___

List of tables and figures: (3) ___

Abstract:

Clearly explains the purpose of the project, the research methods, and any pertinent conclusions or recommendations (5) ___

Introduction/Background:

Establishes a context for readers and piques reader's interest (2) ___

Includes a purpose statement and explains scope of report (2) ___

Includes preview of the report's organization (2) ___

Describes research questions/methods (2) ___

Explains relevance (for general and knowledgeable readers) (2) ___

Body:

Discussion of topics organized in an easy-to-understand and logical structure (5) ___

Supporting visual information is included: (appropriate graphics, survey results) (6) ___

Thorough and clear analysis of topic (6) ___

Ample and clear discussion/presentation of primary research (methods/ results) (10) ___

Secondary research is appropriately incorporated (4) ___

The report does not function simply as a compiled "research paper" (1) ___

Conclusions:

Main ideas presented in report are summarized (3) ___

Finding or recommendation is presented (if appropriate) (3) ___

Mechanics/Miscellaneous:

Proofreading (2) ___

Sentence-level grammar (including, but not limited to, incomplete or run-on sentences, subject/verb agreement, sentence parallelism, spelling) (10) ___

Paragraph structure and use of topic sentences (4) ___

Appropriate use of punctuation, headings, bold/italics/underlining (5) ___

In-text citations (secondary research; beneath images) (5) ___

Works Cited page (4) ___

Appendices (if appropriate) (2) ___

Overall paper aesthetics (2) ___

Interaction with sponsor/sponsor evaluation sheet (6) ___

PAPER TOTAL: _____ (100)

Presentation:

Classmates' average _____ x 75%

Newmark's average _____ x 25% Extra point: _____ FINAL SCORE: _____